Blue Heeler Cloggers are to about to commence new beginner dance classes on Wednesday 27/8/14

An unknown Dance Style hit Orange for the first time back in March – and there has been a fantastic take up of this new dance form- New beginner classes are about to start! So, if you haven't already seen the demonstrations of Clogging that have recently been held in Orange, then maybe you should check out what it is all about by going to a class. And no they don't wear clogs.

Clogging is a fun style of dance that uses your feet to keep time with the music – and there'll be lots of music choice. This style of dance can be done to pretty much any type of music. And you don't need a partner – so anyone can join in.

Blue Heeler Cloggers is owned and run by Graeme Brown & Shelby Ashelford. Graeme says "Clogging allows you to express yourself; dance and have fun". One of their pupils said "Clogging is great, the music is good and you have lots of fun – I can't wait till next week".

The Club Motto, "Dancing with Bite", shows that their new pupils will certainly have the opportunity to do something different.

Graeme has had many years of experience teaching dancers in several different forms of dance and is fully accredited in Clogging.
